ORDER ON EXCLUDABLE TIME

April 13, 2015

Hennessy, M.J.

I hereby ORDER the exclusion of time pursuant to the below-referenced provision of the Speedy Trial Act from Monday, April 13, 2015 (the date on which the fourth Interim Status Conference was scheduled to occur), through and including Friday, June 12, 2015 (the date of the fifth Interim Status Conference). I exclude this time pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) because I find that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. Specifically, in accordance with Local Rule 112.2(c) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (2015), I find that the United States needs this time to continue to produce automatic discovery required under L.R. 116.1, including discovery that is being produced to the United States from Brazilian authorities, and for Defendant to review automatic discovery and, on the basis of that review, to consider the need for discovery requests and pre-trial motions. In making this determination, I note that based on the volume and scope of discovery, and the representation of the United States that information and witnesses are outside the United States, I have designated this case complex, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii). I further find that to not grant such a continuance would deny both the United States and Defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.¹
